Award Winner

Best Licensed RSL and/or Service Club

GIANT killer Cooroy RSL has taken on the behemoths of the club industry and taken out a top category in the annual Clubs Queensland Awards. The club won Best Licensed RSL and/or Services Club (Small). The awards, presented in Brisbane on Tuesday the 8th March night, saw Cooroy take on 337 big and small RSLs, leagues, sports, surf and other clubs across the state, all strongly competing for the prized awards, putting Noosa shire clubs in the forefront of major winners. "Club" Cooroy RSL manager Tina Mayfield, who took over the management of the friendly and popular club on the town's Maple Street in 2013, was elated. "Last year we were entered into three categories and were finalists in two," Ms Mayfield said from Brisbane on Wednesday. "This is great for the staff. The club is now in a good position to achieve a consistent standard of service. "We've diversified activities with cash draws and quality entertainment, we've improved and maintained standards – and our work over the last two years has started to pay off." Ms Mayfield said she had previously worked in hotels prior to the RSL, and "loved" the change. "I love what I do every day," she said. "It's just great to go into work." "The Cooroy RSL should be immensely proud of what they've achieved and for supporting their local community through sponsoring the Noosa District High School, Cooroy Kindergarten, Christmas in Cooroy and the Cooroy

Fusion Festival," Mr Flockhart said.
